

“Sickle Cell Warriors,”

written by: 2015 Camp Crescent campers recording:

Lead Vocals: Tracie Sandheinrich, MT-BC, Senior KRC MT, and Camp Crescent 2015.

Ukulele, Acoustic Guitar, and Background vocals: Ashley Warmbrodt, MT-BC, KRC MT.

Cajon drum: Shelly Koesterer, KRC MT intern.

Here at Camp Crescent, we all have Sickle Cell
Crisis, it's not pleasant, but meds make us feel well
We got friends and family all throughout the year
But we're so strong, sickness we do not fear

Sickle Cell hurts, getting better every day
Sickle Cell is the worst, hear us out as we say

We are the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
Dominating pain to the left and to the right
We are the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
We are brave, and we're gonna win this fight

We are (we are) the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
Dominating pain to the left and to the right
We are (we are) the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
We are fearless, and we're gonna win this fight

When I am feelin' sad, and I don't know where to turn
It helps to smile, that much I have learned
No worries! We got each others' back at camp
So listen to us, rock this Sickle Cell Jam

Sickle Cell hurts, getting better every day
Sickle Cell is the worst, hear us out as we say

We are the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
Dominating pain to the left and to the right
We are the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
We are brave, and we're gonna win this fight

We are (we are) the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
Dominating pain to the left and to the right
We are (we are) the Sickle Cell warriors, whoa oh oh
We are fearless, and we're gonna win this fight

We are brave, and we're gonna win this fight